

THE MARK OF ZORRO: PROGRAM DETAILS

FILM / FORMAT: DVD (2 copies provided)

ROYALTY: $0 (public domain)

RUNNING TIME: 107 minutes

MUSICAL REPERTOIRE: Spanish renaissance music including villancicos by Juan del Ensina, improvisations over ground basses, guitar pieces by Mudarra, Gaspar Sanz and Santiago de Murcia. New World music in indigenous languages (Chiliugu, Quechua) from Colonial Mexico, Peru, New Mexico, Bolivia and Chile.

PERFORMERS: Four musicians on early instruments

- Tina Chancey, Director, viola da gamba, renaissance violin, recorder,
- Grant Herreid, baroque guitar, vihuela, tenor
- Priscilla Smith, recorders, shawm, renaissance bagpipe, crumhorn, soprano
- Nell Snaidas, soprano, renaissance guitar

PROGRAM MATERIALS: Program includes descriptive notes, a list of musical selections, Hesperus bio and performer bios. Also available is a four page illustrated program insert with articles on Douglas Fairbanks, Who was Zorro?, the Music of New Spain and Hesperus creates a Soundtrack. Separate young audience activity pages are also available.

EDUCATIONAL & COMMUNITY RESIDENCIES:

- 50 minute INFORMANCE (all ages) with instrument demo and an accompanied scene from the film
- 50 minute WORKSHOP (8-adult) “If you can’t improvise, then just fake it”
- Four-session of 45 minutes each or one 3 hour RESIDENCY/WORKSHOP (8-adult) “Create your own film soundtrack”

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS: Venue will provide--

1. Movie screen, DVD player & projector, with a 15+” TV monitor hooked up to the DVD player so the musicians may watch the film as it’s being shown
2. 1 (6 or 8)foot table
3. 4 armless, straight-back chairs (See X on diagram for placement)
4. 4 Manhasset (black orchestra) stands with stand lights
5. Spotlights on the 4 musicians at 20% brightness so they can be seen by the audience.

NOTE - We see the performance as a partnership and prefer to play on stage facing the audience looking into a monitor.

BASE FEE: $2500 for the film showing (plus housing, airfare, local travel, residency services)

Contact: Tina Chancey, Director mail@hesperus.org / (703) 525-7550 / 703-407-0642